PATIENT-CENTERED MEDICAL HOME

TEAMWORK. It's important in sports, and it's vital in medicine too. Grace Cottage Hospital has been working hard to develop a strong team approach for your health care and has been awarded Level 2 Certification as a Patient-Centered Medical Home (PCMH) for its efforts. This recognition by the National Committee of Quality Assurance means Grace Cottage has gone the extra mile to meet rigorous national guidelines.

How does this work for you? A team approach means your doctor can offer you even more resources to help you meet your healthcare goals. Grace Cottage's Community Health Team includes skilled health care professionals who specialize in chronic disease management, mental health, nutrition and exercise programs, substance abuse issues, and medication management. While still overseeing your individualized care management plan, your doctor refers you to members of this team for more intensive counseling, education, and support. These services are offered free of charge to all Grace Cottage patients.

Medical providers across the country are realizing the benefits of Patient-Centered Medical Home status. To learn more about Grace Cottage's Community Health Team, ask your provider. If you see a doctor elsewhere, ask about his/her PCMH status.

DR. JOHN DALY RETURNS TO GRACE COTTAGE

Urologist Dr. John Daly is now scheduling patient appointments at Grace Cottage Family Health. A graduate of Boston University School of Medicine, Dr. Daly also trained at Mount Auburn Hospital in Cambridge, MA, at Harvard 5th Surgical Service at Boston City Hospital, and at Mass General. A board-certified urologist since 1979, Dr. Daly had a longtime practice in Brattleboro, and also practiced at Grace Cottage in the 1990s. "I am happy to return to Grace Cottage, where medical care continues to keep its human face, and where caring is #1," said Dr. Daly.

Dr. Kimona Alin reviews an inpatient's EKG with RN Andrew Semegram.

WHAT IS A HOSPITALIST?

THIS PAST SUMMER, Grace Cottage Hospital's physicians designed and implemented a hospitalist program that has been highly successful, according to Grace Cottage's doctors, nurses, and patients. Dr. Kimona Alin, Dr. Ewa Arnold, Dr. Maurice Geurts, Dr. Moss Linder, and Dr. Timothy Shafer each take a one-week rotation, during which their primary responsibility is caring for patients who have been admitted to Grace Cottage Hospital. According to Chief Medical Officer Chris Schmidt, "In the past, our physicians were juggling hospital, ER, and clinic patients, and their time, energy, and effort were divided among these three areas. Now our providers can focus on either the clinic, the ER, or the hospital, depending upon where they're working with patients at that particular time. This leads to better continuity of care in all areas, and we're very pleased with how it's working for our patients."

SMALL COMMUNITY HOSPITAL STANDS PREPARED

A MESSAGE

I never cease to be amazed by the professionalism and dedication of Grace Cottage Hospital's employees, and I have been very impressed by several recent events when many staff members went way above and beyond patient care.

SAFETY: Mental health issues are as pervasive in rural Vermont as anywhere else, and we have had to face the realities of today's world. We have had to lock down the hospital twice in the last six months when threats were made by patients and/or visitors in the Emergency Room. Employees handled these incidents calmly and professionally, and both lockdowns were learning experiences. We now have a contracted security officer on duty at night in the hospital, a step that will help to ensure the safety of patients and staff.

EBOLA PREPAREDNESS: Vermont has been ranked among the nation's best prepared states to manage severe disease outbreaks and contain their spread, according to the Trust for America's Health and Robert Wood Johnson Foundation (Maryland, Massachusetts, Virginia, and Tennessee tied with Vermont for the top score). Thanks to the hard work of many employees, Grace Cottage has procedures and protocols in place to deal with Ebola should an outbreak occur here.

EVACUATION HELP: This New Year's Eve, the unthinkable happened when a sprinkler pipe burst at 7:15 p.m. at Valley Cares, Townshend's assisted living facility. Over 40 residents had to be evacuated, and 10 were brought to Grace Cottage so that they could spend the night in a warm bed. Several key Grace Cottage employees were called in to help the staff on duty, and everything flowed seamlessly in the face of an emergency on a night when temperatures averaged 9 degrees. All Valley Cares residents are fine and have returned to their apartments or are staying with family until the water damage can be repaired.

Grace Cottage stands ready for whatever 2015 may bring. We thank our supportive community and our devoted employees for enabling us to go above and beyond whenever a situation arises that calls for our help.

THREE NEW MEMBERS ELECTED TO HOSPITAL BOARD

Lexa Clark of Jamaica, VT, Martha Dale of Londonderry, VT, and Cheryl Sanctuary of Acworth, NH, were all elected to the Grace Cottage Hospital Board of Trustees in November.

Clark served for almost 25 years as the Deputy Clerk at Windham Superior Court in Newfane. She has chaired the Jamaica Selectboard since 2007, and was Captain of the Jamaica Volunteer Fire & Rescue Department for 30 years, as well as Treasurer for EMS District #13.

Dale most recently worked for the Yale Global Health Leadership Institute after a career in non-profit health care management in Connecticut. At Yale, Dale was the Director of China Programs for GHLI, where she was the director of the Goldman Sachs 10,000 Women: The Yale-Tsinghua Certificate Program in International Healthcare Management, Beijing. She maintains a lectureship position at the Yale School of Public Health.

Sanctuary, BSN, RN, MA, has worked in the medical field for over 20 years as a Chief Operating Officer (COO), director, practice manager, and registered nurse. Prior to becoming the COO at Sojourns Community Health Clinic in Westminster, VT, she was the Chief of Practice Operations for Springfield Medical Care Systems in VT (Springfield Hospital).

"We are excited to welcome these new members to the board," said Grace Cottage CEO Roger Allbee. "They bring a fresh perspective and different backgrounds. I know that their service will provide tremendous benefits to Grace Cottage Hospital and our mission in going beyond patient care."

After a 23-year tenure, Deborah Boyle, Senior Vice President at People's United Bank, retired from the Grace Cottage Hospital Board. She served as President, VP, and Treasurer at various times during her volunteer service to Grace Cottage. "Deb has been an extraordinary board member, and we greatly appreciate her leadership and ongoing commitment to health care," said Allbee.

WISHES GRANTED...

- ♥ On Giving Tuesday, 46 Grace Cottage supporters answered our Facebook, e-mail, and website appeal for a new Ambuscope (flexible intubation tube) for the ER. The goal of $3,500 was raised by 11:22 a.m. and so many donations kept arriving that sufficient additional funds were raised to purchase a $1,255 Suture Kit for the ER. Almost 25% of all Giving Tuesday donors were Grace Cottage Hospital employees!
- ♥ Ken & Ellie Lemire donated the funds to purchase two-handled mugs for hospital inpatients.

Darlene Clark, Licensed Practical Nurse, gave two thumbs up at her retirement party at Grace Cottage in November. Her advice? "Get up each morning and come to work full of joy, loving what you do." Darlene has been at Grace Cottage for 25 years, and she will be greatly missed.

A grateful patient writes:

“I have worked in five hospitals in three states and I cannot get over how lucky we all are to have this little jewel of a 19-bed cottage hospital right here in southern Vermont. I had my left knee replacement rehab there five years ago and volunteered in the Social Work Department for close to two years for the incomparable Carol Vandertuin. I just had my right knee replacement rehab there a month ago. The place blows me away! The newer nurses have slipped into place and seem to belong to the ethos of the place. If you have ever been to, or worked in, a big hospital, you understand. This is a very SPECIAL experience at Grace Cottage Hospital. ”

GRACE COTTAGE INCREASES ENERGY EFFICIENCY

GRACE COTTAGE HOSPITAL and Green Lantern Group have entered into an agreement to collaborate on a 500 kilowatt community solar array, to be operational early this year. The electricity generated by this array, located in Pittsford, VT, will serve the main Grace Cottage Hospital buildings, generating significant savings for the hospital over the twenty-year term of the agreement.

"The economic, environmental, and social benefits from projects such as this are meaningful for our hospital and for our community," said Roger Allbee, Grace Cottage's CEO. "This project with Green Lantern will provide most of Grace Cottage's annual power needs, thereby reducing our annual operating budget, and it fits perfectly with our goal to work towards environmental sustainability in all of our operations."

"The economic, environmental, and social benefits from projects such as this are meaningful for our hospital and for our community."

In another move towards energy efficiency, Grace Cottage Hospital was able to replace all light fixtures and bulbs with LED lights during the past two months. This $60,000 project was made possible by funding from a very generous Grace Cottage donor and a grant from Efficiency Vermont.

GRACE COTTAGE HOSPITAL FAIR DAY

ABOUT TEN YEARS AGO my husband and I with my girlfriend and her husband 'stumbled' onto the annual Grace Cottage Fair. We were driving through Vermont and there it was....a wonderful little Fair on a Green of an idyllic Vermont village complete with gazebo and B&B's! That day our plans didn't allow us more than a brief stop. That was all it took to get us 'hooked' on the Grace Cottage Fair. We live in Syracuse, NY and have since made it our annual vacation trip with our friends who are from Latham, NY. We love everything about the Fair especially the interaction with the hospital doctors, nurses, staff and volunteers. You couldn't ask for more dedicated, enthusiastic, kind people. Our day includes all of the events, White Elephant, Auction (my day is spent there), art show, food tents, plant sale and the wonderful chicken barbeque.

We can't think of a better way to spend our vacation. It is very heartwarming to know that what we purchase at the Fair goes directly to the hospital to help fund their wish list. Grace Cottage Hospital is a rare gem and should continue to grow and provide loving quality care to the community. We have enjoyed the Fair for the past ten years and look forward to returning for many years to come! ”

Warm regards,

The first 100 participants to register will receive a free shirt. $25 registration in advance; $30 after midnight on July 8th. For more information go to www.gracecottage.org/events.

FOUNDATION WELCOMES NEW TEAM MEMBER

SHEILA SCHEUERMAN has joined Grace Cottage Hospital as Development & Community Relations Manager, effective October 1st. “Sheila’s been a wonderful addition to our team,” said Andrea Seaton, Executive Director of Grace Cottage Foundation. “She’s been working closely with C.J. King and me on all aspects of Foundation activities, including fundraising and marketing. She will be spearheading the hospital’s upcoming Community Health Needs Assessment, our Cabin Fever Auction, other events, and Grace Cottage’s social media presence.”

Sheila and her husband, Jeff Karlin, recently moved to Townshend from Charleston, SC, where she was a professor at the Charleston School of Law. Prior to her academic life, Sheila practiced law with Arnold & Porter LLP in Washington, D.C.

Sheila’s father, Bill Scheuerman, was a long-time Townshend resident and Grace Cottage supporter.

“I saw firsthand that Grace Cottage goes beyond patient care during my father’s hospital stays. I became a fan of Grace Cottage when I saw the personal care and attention that every doctor, nurse, and staff member provided to my Dad when he was a patient,” she stated. “Jeff and I fell in love with Vermont, and I was excited at the opportunity to join Grace Cottage Hospital. It is such a vital part of the Townshend community, and I believe in its mission.”

Sheila earned her B.A. from the College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, MA, her J.D. from Washington University in St. Louis, and her LL.M. from Temple University Beasley School of Law in Philadelphia. She is a licensed attorney in Washington, D.C. and Missouri.

THE GIFT OF GIVING

DAN & PEG ARGUIMBAU

“In 1988, our family was on vacation at Townshend Cottages and our children (then 6 and 8) were playing catch when our daughter misjudged a fly-ball and it came down on her eye. We headed to Grace Cottage Hospital, where Dr. Shafer scooped our little girl up into his arms to comfort her. After he x-rayed her, Dr. Shafer stayed with us until he was sure that all was fine.

It was such a calming experience for us and left such an impression that we have continued to support Grace Cottage every year. The unbelievable thing is, every time, we receive a wonderful thank you note. For the amount of our donation, bigger hospitals would never even bother. This summer, when we stopped to meet the author of these notes, she took us for a quick visit to Dr. Shafer, in almost the exact same place in the building that we were 27 years ago! We assured Dr. Shafer that, as paperwork seems to take over purpose and passion for the job, his way of caring matters to many, many people over many, many years.

We plan to continue supporting all the wonderful employees at Grace Cottage, in hopes that they can continue their good work for many years to come.”
